INSTRUCTIONS TO BILLING ATTORNEY FOR SUBMISSION OF RSA:

1. INITIAL RSA

Submission of the INITIAL RSA is triggered by one of the following events, and is due within the applicable time frame set forth below:

(a) IMMEDIATE NOTICE—RECEIPT OF OFFER OF JUDGMENT

Billing Attorney shall immediately notify the adjuster upon receipt of an Offer of Judgment from the Plaintiff or a co-defendant, and shall submit a completed RSA as soon as possible to the Adjuster, the appropriate Section Chief, and the Deputy Director of Litigation.

(b) TEN DAY DEADLINE

Billing Attorney shall submit completed RSA form within 10 days (unless otherwise specified) of the occurrence of any of these other events:

- Receipt of settlement offer from Plaintiff
- Receipt of request to mediate/arbitrate from any party
- Receipt of Notice of Status Conference to set trial date
- Counsel's determination that liability is certain and/or settlement is advisable
- Settlement activity on the part of any co-defendant
- Receipt of instructions from ORM adjuster to make an offer of judgment to plaintiff (Prior written approval of DOJ required before offer may be extended)
- Any significant or unusual event which changes the evaluation of the State's exposure
- Receipt of request from adjuster

(c) THIRTY DAY DEADLINE

Billing Attorney shall submit completed RSA form at least 30 days (or as soon as practicable) prior to any status conference at which it may be reasonably anticipated that settlement will be discussed by the Trial Judge or his designee

2. SUPPLEMENTAL RSA'S

Billing Attorney shall submit a SUPPLEMENTAL RSA when (1) there is a significant change in counsel's evaluation of liability and/or quantum as reported in the previous RSA or (2) when requested by the Adjuster. It is recommended that any new information or new evaluation be set forth in boldface type on the Supplemental RSA form.

3. PRE-TRIAL RSA---DUE 60 DAYS PRIOR TO TRIAL

Unless otherwise instructed by the Adjuster, the RSA form is to be used, and it is due at least 60 days prior to trial.

When a trial is continued, an updated RSA shall be submitted at least 60 days prior to the new trial date. The RSA must include a description of any significant developments, including pre-trial rulings that bear on the assessment of liability or damages, a re-cap of settlement discussions, and any other new information that affects resolution of the case.

Billing Attorney shall mail, fax or email the completed RSA to the adjuster and the appropriate Section Chief at the Department of Justice and email a copy to the DOJ Deputy Director at LitDir@ag.state.la.us .
