

Contract Negotiations

OSP, agency project leader, and the successful vendor shall negotiate the final contract. Negotiations may begin once the intent to award letter has been issued with the understanding that the 14 day protest time must pass before any contract can be finalized. Negotiation may include revision of terms and conditions and non-mandatory requirements.