National statistics on volunteering are released by the Corporation for National and Community Service in a comprehensive annual study entitled, "Volunteering in America Report". The report is issued each year between the months of April-July and provides data estimates for the previous calendar year. The data is based on surveys of 100,000 individuals collected by the U.S. Census and the Bureau of Labor Statistics nationwide. The statistics in the state profiles are focused on volunteer services performed by LA residents (in-state volunteers) and do not include service by out-of-state volunteers.
