

Cessation of Rule-Making

Due to the recent decision in Barber, et al. v. LWC, et al., 621,071, Sec. 26, 19th Judicial District Court, rendered by Judge Donald R. Johnson on March 2, 2017, the Office of Workers' Compensation Administration has determined that it would be in the best interest of all parties to halt the rule making process initiated by Notices of Intent to revise LAC 40:2328, 2715, 2178, and 5507 published in the Louisiana Register on February 20, 2017 on pages 473-484.
